Constitutional Amendment: Executive Board

Draft here

---

Resolution on Amy Wax

1. Expedient termination of Professor Amy Wax
2. Suspension of Professor Amy Wax from teaching and any administrative duties while the sanctioning process is in progress.
3. Transparency regarding sanction hearing procedures
4. Public notice of any sanctions levied, should the President decide to apply sanctions.

5. Expansion of preventive measures to combat hateful speech and actions on campus.

Wellness Competition

1. Withdraw the competition with a formal announcement to all students,
2. Adopt a policy of consulting student governments and all stakeholders before developing or announcing any initiatives or policies which involve us,
3. Reallocate the funds earmarked for the wellness competition to an individual incentive program that directly benefits the students in compliance with Penn's regulations,
4. Consider implementing ways to encourage compliance with Penn's regulations, such as those already in effect for other immunization requirements

Updates from the Executive Board

Finance:

Roll over from Fall (need to spend more money).

Always try to pay by purchase order and let us know before time. We are avoiding Venmo because of the University policy.

Application says 7 days.

Problems: Sales Tax Exemption (works with Concur).

Check: Pay for invoices or wants receipts.

Social: Social Chair Updates

GSEG Executive Board Elections

The elections for the Executive Board member positions will be conducted on April 5, 2022. Nominations are welcome at gseg@seas.Gupenn.edu.

Updates from the Departmental Representatives

Updates from GAPSA Representatives

GAPSA meeting tomorrow at Houston Hall starting at 5:30 PM.

PI(E) Talks

Computing resources on campus.-- tabedzki@seas.upenn.edu

RC and GAPSA are discussing PhD student stipends. Admin sucks. Admin SUCKS. ADMIN SUCKSS!!!!

School wide survey coming soon.

Grad Student Add and Drop Deadline– School wide policy, not a university policy. Raj can reach out to Boon. Interschool is a bigger problem.

Election day should be off.

New Business

1.

Agenda for April General Meeting

Ice Cream. Beverages.
